OPEN HOUSE CANCELLED Views for days that won't be built out, with the convenience of city living on your doorstep. This is the modern Newcastle lifestyle you have been dreaming of. Imagine walking through the door of this sub-penthouse apartment in the ever popular north tower of the Stella Development, and being immediately greeted by sweeping views of the harbour and marina with distant views to Stockton in the north and Mount Sugarloaf in the west. And with the northerly aspect, the apartment enjoys sun and light all day long. Featuring two generous bedrooms both with direct access to the spacious balcony and walk-in robes. And an open plan kitchen and living area, where the view is your constant companion. And pamper yourself in the 2 designer bathrooms, the main with a free standing bathtub. Being in the middle of happening Wickham, there is direct access to everything inner city Newcastle has to offer. You can stroll along the foreshore to Honeysuckle, or jump on the tram and head to the East End or the beach. Or pop downstairs and grab something from the supermarket or grab a coffee next door. You can end the day with a drink on the private deck that is not overlooked and watch the sunlight fade over Nobbys Headland.
