An investors dream with a long term tenant in place until November, 2025. This eastern positioned, two bedroom apartment takes full advantage of the high ceilings, balcony and windows letting the natural light billow into the living and dining space. The master bedroom encompasses a modern and stylish bathroom and walk-through-robe with the second bedroom having a large built in robe. Highpoint offers all residents exclusive access to two private entertaining areas. The terrace garden, entertainment and barbeque area can be found on the level three podium and sitting 165m above sea level, the spectacular rooftop terrace entertaining space which offers 90m<sup>2</sup> of expansive 360 degree views that take in the ocean, Lake Macquarie and mountain ranges to the west. Charlestown boasts quality public open spaces, schools, pre-schools, day care, medical and financial facilities as well as shopping and entertainment. GWH Real Estate was born after recognising the need for a reliable Newcastle and Hunter Valley real estate agency with a refreshing, streamlined and progressive approach to residential and commercial property. Offering all-inclusive, custom real estate services with the assistance of a preferred partner network of suppliers, the friendly team at GWH Real Estate can sell, rent, and manage your residential and commercial investments.
