From its convenient location to its timeless rendered exterior wrapping around a carefully considered updated, light-filled interior, everything about this immaculately presented home ensures easy living and brilliant entertaining. Space, light, neutral-toned walls, glossy timber floors and quality carpet combine in a single-level layout, delivering style and contemporary liveability. The spacious lounge cleverly integrates a fitted desk with two workstations. Ideal for homework and working from home, it sweeps around to a family-meals area overlooked by a stainless steel equipped stone finished soft close kitchen that will release the inner gourmet. The three bedrooms, all boasting fitted built-in robes, share a floor-to-ceiling tiled bathroom finished with a stone vanity and on-trend matt black fittings and fixtures. Taking its design cues from the bathroom, the laundry offers a large stone bench, loads of storage and matt black touches. The north-facing rear yard includes a paved and covered outdoor entertainment area and an oversized garage. With a summer kitchen, and space for the gym gear, a table tennis table, to fit out for storage or partition off for a workshop it's a handy asset indeed. Designed for family life, extras include ducted heating and cooling, day-night blinds, an alarm, CCTV security, a shed and the convenience of a second toilet. Enjoying the convenience of the bus to the station at the door, Uren Reserve is just a few doors away, the primary school with an easy walk, and it's a quick trip to local shops, including the IGA, the centre of Thomastown and the Ring Road.
