

133 Frederick Street, Ashfield, NSW 2131

Sold House

Friday, 1 September 2023

133 Frederick Street, Ashfield, NSW 2131

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 4

Type: House

Philip Minas
0422774043

Andy Wu
0413476168

$2,208,000

Prepare to be amazed and discover a surprising world of space, light and creative design in this beautifully transformed Californian bungalow. Upgraded and extended to provide a relaxed haven for the entertainer, this deceptively spacious home occupies an impressive 550sqm landholding and exceeds all expectations by showcasing a flowing dual-level floorplan with light-filled living spaces and many high-end finishes throughout. It's the lifestyle location that will really attract buyers as it is very conveniently positioned within strolling distance to the aquatic centre, Ashfield's train station, shopping and restaurants. A versatile interior layout features five great -sized bedrooms Flowing and light-filled open design and double height ceilings Separate one-bedroom granny flat with own entry up the side Upstairs master bedroom with walk-in, ensuite and adjoining study Quality modern kitchen with breakfast island and high-end fittings An alfresco dining patio plus a maintenance-free paved backyard Secure off-street parking for up to eight cars with gated entry Built-in wardrobes throughout, air-conditioning and good security Central ducted air conditioning & solar panels