A ready-made lifestyle package perfect for those looking to get into the highly sought-after Marrickville property market. Boasting period features throughout, off street parking and a large undercover entertainers' area that flows onto an expansive rear garden, this two-bedroom semi-detached house offers the perfect blend of ready to move in and scope for future value add. Smartly presented with a fresh contemporary style, the interiors offer an easy-to-maintain layout with an abundance of natural light throughout. All of this is located in a prime position that's quite literally footsteps away from Illawarra Road's 'Eat Street', a short stroll from the train station, with the buzz of Marrickville Road's shopping, dining and entertainment hub just a block away.

- Two double bedrooms both with built-in robes plus study area
- The bright interior layout with period features throughout
- A modern kitchen with quality gas cooking and large dining area
- Private landscaped garden plus a covered dining/ entertaining space
- Attic storeroom, garden shed and prized off-street parking
- Renovated and well-lit bathroom complete with internal laundry
- Close proximity to schools, parks, multiple transport options and Marrickville's dining/ entertaining hub
- Air-conditioning, ceiling fans, skylights, gas heating and timber floors
