Welcome to 135 David Street in East Devonport - presenting this comfortable three bedroom brick home ideally suited to a growing family with much to offer including:

- A concrete verandah runs the width of the front of the house - an ideal place to sit in the afternoon sun or watch the lights from the Spirit of Tasmania as she leaves Devonport.
- Large formal lounge room with a cosy wood heater as well as an efficient Daikin heat pump
- Open plan kitchen and dining room leads into a spacious family room
- Master bedroom has a walk-in robe and ensuite
- 2nd and 3rd bedrooms both have plenty of storage with built-in robes
- The family bathroom has a shower over bath and is located near the laundry with convenient access to the back door
- There is a single enclosed remote-control carport which also provides vehicle access to the back yard
- A handy brick shed sits adjacent to the garage and is currently used as a teenage retreat but with power and lighting, would also make a great workshop
- Glass sliding doors lead from the family room into an enclosed entertainment area overlooking the neat back yard providing the perfect place to relax after a long day
- Aluminium garden shed (3m x 3m approx.) is located at the rear of the back yard and has a concrete floor with plenty of space to store gardening tools

This property would make a great family home with opportunity for the new owners to add their own touch. Call Julie Gale today for more information or to arrange a private inspection.
