A monument of designer excellence, this remarkable Torrens title luxury home evokes the ambience of a European residence in a dress circle location in one of Bellevue Hills best streets. It exhibits a first-class persona expressed with grand proportions, luxury furnishings and picture windows framing up epic views over the district that extend to the water. The kitchen and bathrooms are adorned with marble slabs, while the terraces are finished with silver travertine, evoking timeless prestige in an premium eastern suburbs locale. Visualise sharing time with guests in the lavish lounge room, the stunning chef's kitchen, the elegant dining setting or around any of the fireplaces, including the one outdoors beside the pool. It also features a championship size tennis court (with night lights) with kitchenette ideal for entertaining and leisure. Presenting four deluxe bedrooms, this spacious home achieves the pinnacle of comfort reflected in the postcode's family homes, with gardens that are easy to maintain. The lift accesses all three levels, there is plenty of wall space to exhibit your art collection, while the executive-style office (or 5th bedroom) invites you to conduct business from the comfort of your home.
