$600,000 to $660,000 Currently leased @ $2390 pcm

Close to Dandenong central and only a few minutes' walk to Dandenong Station this group of modern 3 story townhouses are ideally positioned with good access to major roads, shopping and markets, public transport, and public open space yet provide a level of quiet and comfort generally found in inner Melbourne suburbs. High ceilings and large floor to ceiling windows complement the generous air-conditioned living areas to provide a comfortable home all year round. A ground floor bedroom and separate bathroom are ideal for a guests stop over allowing them an amount of independence. The first floor contains all the family living space including Kitchen, dining area and an easterly facing balcony. The kitchen is modern with plenty of storage, stainless steel gas and electric cooking appliances and a dishwasher integrated into the island bench/breakfast bar. The upper floor provides a large master bedroom with en-suite, a second large bedroom and a central bathroom, both bedrooms have large floor to ceiling windows AC and electric wall heaters. Currently leased at $2,390 pcm, by a long-term tenant the property has been well maintained by the tenant and the vendor.
