This property is situated in one of Australia's most sought after addresses located right on the fringe of Byron Bay. For the first time ever this rare land holding of 144 acres presents to the market, large parcels of land in this location just don't come to the market often. The property boasts rolling grazing pastures that have been split into several paddocks, making it ideal for horses or any livestock. The property is currently being run as a cattle farm that has been beautifully nurtured & maintained by many generations of the one family for roughly 138 years. The main Homestead was built in the early 1900's and is just sitting here waiting to be brought back to life with a creative renovation. Originally built from local materials this Homestead is filled with all the period features such as high pressed metal ceilings & walls, generously sized rooms, gorgeous brickwork in the kitchen & hardwood timbers floorboards throughout and of course the iconic Australian wide veranda's that wraps around this dwelling capturing the cool coastal breezes all year round. Not only can you see the lighthouse but you are only a few kilometers from the beach. This property could be the perfect blank canvas for you to build your very own family compound, wellbeing retreat or farm-stay. Come immerse yourself in the relaxed Byron Bay lifestyle & enjoy nearby surrounding towns & villages including Bangalow, Newrybar, Mullumbimby & Brunswick Heads. There are endless opportunities here with this property, an abundance of spring fed water and undulating hills all surrounded by picturesque mountain ranges & spectacular beaches, who wouldn't want to call this place home. This truly is a very special opportunity to potentially create your own dynasty and is worth your inspection. -144 Acres of premium red volcanic soil-Spring fed water supply & seasonal creek-Dairy Bales-Several existing accommodation options-100+ year old homestead-Incredible location-Spectacular views-Suitable for holiday cabins (STCA)-Easy access to Gold Coast and Ballina airports.
