Nestled in the heart of Toronto, 137 The Boulevard offers a rare opportunity to embrace the vibrant lifestyle that the town has to offer. Just minutes away from an array of charming cafes, trendy bars, and exquisite restaurants, this prime location effortlessly blends convenience with luxury. The 1,042 m² property is a canvas awaiting transformation, with Development Approval (DA) secured for the construction of five townhouses. Unveiling a harmonious fusion of modern design and practicality, the property comes with architectural blueprints and intricate floor plans, providing a glimpse into the future of this urban oasis. This exceptional parcel of land not only promises a premium living experience but also represents a sound investment in Toronto's flourishing real estate landscape. Whether you are an astute investor seeking a lucrative opportunity or an individual in pursuit of a contemporary dwelling in Toronto's beating heart, this property invites you to be a part of a vision where lifestyle and design converge seamlessly.
