Ever so close to tranquil Johnson Park, this radiant and inviting three bedroom plus studio home enjoys a blue ribbon leafy locale. Introduced by a productive front garden sporting plum, nectarine, pear and apple trees, the beautifully lit abode flaunts generous open family and dining rooms. Fully equipped, the kitchen highlights a stainless steel stove and Bosch dishwasher, while the rear garden is serene and looks to lofty canopies. Bedrooms share a central bathroom with shower over bath, and finishing touches include satin finish timber floors, heating/cooling, decorative fireplaces, a heat recovery ventilation system, rainwater tanks and shed. Seconds to buses and just a stroll to trains and Westgarth Primary, it's desirably zoned to Northcote High. Handy to both Fairfield Village and High Street, this delightful home could hardly be better placed to offer an enviable lifestyle with opportunity to grow.
