With peaceful setting and rural outlook, lifestyle properties on small acreage within Warrnambools radius are getting harder to find. Featuring ample shedding for the tradesperson or home handyman, the property lends itself to growing families or the downsizing farmer. The brick home features 3 generously sized bedrooms, family living area and recently updated kitchen space. With northerly aspect from the kitchen, the 5 acres are split between rear paddocks, peaceful home setting and large yard looking towards Drysdale Creek. With so much to offer in a quiet location, call to register your interest today.
