The perfect opportunity for first home buyers to purchase an affordable home in a sought-after location. The home offers an open plan living with a Daiken reverse cycle heating/cooling option. The kitchen has been updated in recent times and boasts quality oven, cooktop, and separate grill. Three bedrooms are complemented by the family bathroom and separate toilet. Securely fenced, the home is great for young families and pets, a rear back yard with garden, while the existing garage needs some TLC but the side room is an asset for storage or work area. Sitting centrally in Devonport and within walking distance to the Bluff beach, shopping and all conveniences, there is a lot to consider with this property. There's scope to take this home to the next level of style or add to your property portfolio.
