Idyllically positioned in a most peaceful and private enclave, this “like new” executive home sits in perfect harmony with its tranquil environment providing a secluded setting to raise a family and embrace the very best of the Dandenong Ranges. Tucked away on a sprawling 3/4-acre garden parcel, this newly renovated five-bedroom, three-bathroom home is absolute turnkey with not a finger to lift. The only thing left for you to do is simply sit back and enjoy its secluded style and large-scale comfort. Set well back from the main road, the property exudes an aura of exclusivity and privacy from the moment you arrive. Families will be drawn to the space, the setting, the quietude yet you are just minutes from Mount Dandenong and Olinda conveniences for community and connection and the #688 bus stop is at the doorstep. Inside calms with a flowing dual-level, floorplan that is defined by its seamless connection to the surrounding landscape. From every room you can garden gaze or effortlessly spill to alfresco zones with stunning floor skimming bi folds that drench the home in natural light and invite a true connection with mother nature. The open plan living and dining zone, enhanced by a gas log fire and expansive glazing, creates an inviting ambiance for relaxation and socialising set against a lush garden backdrop. A brand-new contemporary kitchen overlooks the meals/second living providing space to spread your wings and a sophisticated domain for culinary endeavours highlighted by glistening Caesarstone counters, 900mm stainless-steel cooker and oodles of built-in storage. Sequestered from the other ground floor bedrooms, the privately positioned master suite features a walk-in robe and updated ensuite with an attached sunroom/retreat offering a quiet reprieve from busy family life. Upstairs, a dedicated two-bedroom wing offers privacy and convenience, while beautifully styled modern bathrooms throughout ensure everyday comfort with a touch of luxe. Alfresco allure is delivered in spades with an all-season entertaining zone ripe for hosting friends and family framed by lush tree ferns. Framing the home, meticulously landscaped gardens showcase a stunning array of flora, including rhododendrons, camellias, and majestic trees such as silver birch, maples, and myrtle beech perfect for pottering, pondering and child’s play. Moments from the top of Mount Dandenong for panoramic vistas of Melbourne and fireworks on New Year’s Eve and with picturesque walking tracks nearby, “Kalbar” is just perfect for raising a family, entertaining and taking time to appreciate life among nature.
