Ansons Bay, a beachside holiday location that's quiet and presents a laid-back lifestyle ready for you to take advantage of. Picture this, near-isolated beaches, plenty of fishing hotspots and a fantastic jetty to launch the boat. There are many things to do in Ansons Bay such as exploring the quiet beaches, fishing, a trip to Eddystone Lighthouse or take a day trip and explore the Bay of Fires Walking track. Make memories with the family exploring the picturesque river in the tinnie or kayak, take a refreshing swim or take the wakeboard and biscuit for a spin, the options are endless. This fabulous waterfront property, which adjoins crown reserve, offers a perfect location for you to enjoy all year round with your family and friends. Located on the popular Acacia Drive the home has been tastefully renovated to create a warm inviting feeling for you to love. As you enter the home you are greeted by a large living and dining space which houses a cosy wood fire and reverse cycle air conditioner. Two bedrooms, a combined bathroom/laundry room and spacious kitchen extend off the living room to complete the floor plan. Gas hot water, an upgraded septic system, garden shed and a generous 1818 sqm block of land complete this fabulous property. This property is approx. 40 minutes to the famous St Helens Mountain bike trails, plus you are connected to remarkable bushland to take the motorbike for a spin on multiple established tracks.
