A new benchmark for luxury living on the coast has been innovatively designed and meticulously crafted to present the ultimate world-class lifestyle package. Set against an inspiring and ever-changing ocean panorama stretching over the surf to the horizon, its exclusive setting is elevated on the sought after strip of Northcove Road in Long Beach. This immaculately presented house has been built to capture the best of the scenic views and the surrounding bushland and gives you a sense of privacy. 3 bedrooms upstairs with the main kitchen and open plan living area with views out towards the ocean. Kitchen features a large breakfast bar and electric cooking, flowing out to the main deck, perfect for the afternoon sun. Wood fireplace keeps the upstairs living nice and cosy with additional air conditioning, perfect to keep cool in the summer. Master bedroom upstairs features a walk-in wardrobe to ensuite bathroom. Second and third bedrooms both have built-in wardrobes and ample natural light with large windows. The third bedroom could be used as an office with its own private balcony facing north, perfectly capturing the morning sunshine. Set up for dual access, the downstairs is able to be opened up or shut off with the use of privacy glass French doors. Down stairs features 2 separate living spaces, 3 spacious bedrooms with built-in wardrobes and a main bathroom with bathtub and spacious shower. Additional wet bar downstairs, perfect for the overflow of guests or potential separate accommodation. Full steel frame, low maintenance gardens and completely landscaped yard, perfect so you can spend more time watching the waves and soaking in the sunshine from every part of the home. Backing onto a small bush reserve with a pathway to both Maloneys Beach and Long Beach, when the tide is low you could do a full loop from one beach to the other. Plenty of storage with 2 single car garages featuring built in cupboards and work benches, additional under house storage with access, perfect for kayaks and bikes. With only a short drive to Batemans Bay, 2 hours to Canberra or 3.5 hours to Sydney, this is the perfect location for your own private getaway or for permanent living with potential of an additional income. The choice is yours. Master built and quite unique, with no expense spared. An inspection will not disappoint.
