Located on the cusp of Highett's retail and lifestyle districts, this four bedroom home's stunning contemporary style is distinguished by use of quality materials, indoor-outdoor interface, and stunning north-facing entertaining. The rich, natural original timber flooring is enhanced by beautiful leafy outlooks afforded by each of the three living zones. The undercover alfresco and surrounding gardens offer a peaceful outdoor escape during the warmer months, but as the weather cools down, the open fireplaces of the living & family rooms will provide a place for friends and family to congregate. A series of intelligent improvements have transformed the kitchen into a statement of culinary excellence. Wrapped by stone benches that extend to integrate an adjoining scullery/laundry, the kitchen features quality stainless-steel equipment, a central skylight, pendant lighting over the breakfast bar, and high-volume cabinetry. Accommodation has likewise been intelligently designed. Three childrens' bedrooms and a family bathroom occupy the heart of the home. But separated by two living zones is a privately positioned parents' retreat with WIR and private ensuite. Features include alfresco access in two of the childrens' bedrooms, landscaped gardens, a front terrace, cubby house, ducted heating, split-system A/C's, spa-bath, and carport. This dream location places you within metres of Waves Leisure Centre & Highett Reserve. The elite bayside private school belt, Southland SC, and Cheltenham station village are right nearby.
