

13A Wilguy Crescent, Buderim, Qld 4556

McGrath

Sold House

Friday, 6 October 2023

13A Wilguy Crescent, Buderim, Qld 4556

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 700 m2

Type: House

Stuart Thomas

0438821269

$2,000,000

Positioned for unparalleled convenience in an elevated position and prestigious street of Buderim this near new single level home on 700sqm showcases natural light with high end quality and design. Seamlessly flow from living to outdoor areas and sparkling pool, close to all Buderim has to offer including schools, shops, cafes, restaurants and amenities.- Elevated position in prestigious street with ocean and hinterland views- Single level elegant design by Kieron James Design on 700sqm- Open plan kitchen, living and dining seamlessly flow to outdoor area- Inviting covered outdoor area with built in BBQ and rangehood- High ceilings and abundance of natural light throughout- Lavish kitchen, large butlers pantry, stone benches, quality appliances- Generous master bedroom with walk-in-robe and ensuite- Three further good sized bedrooms with built in robes- Dedicated media room with acoustic sound proofing- Good sized laundry with large linen cupboard- Private sparkling pool with solar heating- 13.2kw solar with 10kw inverter and 3 phase power- Ducted air-conditioning with 6 zones, security screens, ceiling fans, - Flat and private backyard with established gardens and garden shed- Double garage with drive-through roller door – store small boat or trailer- Very quiet street close to all Buderim amenities including shops and cafes- Easy access to both private and state schools, short drive to local beaches