Large in space and big on views, this light filled older style 1 bedroom top floor security apartment laps up scattered bay views in the distance from every room. Bigger than your classic one bedroom apartment, this generous retreat enjoys a welcoming tiled entry hall with storage, modern kitchen with meals area (stainless steel Technika stove and provision for washing machine), a stylish living room, a large bedroom with built in robes and a bright bathroom. In a quiet block, this sought after first home, investment or city stay has all you need including a security intercom, Nobo panel heating, modern carpets and deep under-building parking (room for car and motorbike, if so desired). On the edge of the action, a short walk to the Dandenong Road tram into the city, Chapel Street and more, minutes to Windsor station, Alma Village and the glorious Alma Park.
