Northerly sunshine, tranquil leafy surrounds and fresh ocean breezes bring a fresh beach feel to this renovated apartment between Charing Cross village and Bronte's surf and cafe scene. Secluded from the street in the rear wing of a tightly held collection of 18, the first floor apartment is wrapped in windows on three sides with a peaceful garden outlook and an oversized 80sqm approx layout. Perfect for the beach lover who desires a sense of sanctuary, the two-bedroom apartment comes with undercover parking and a large storeroom with plentiful room for bikes and boards and only one common wall. An easy walk down Bronte Road to the beach action, this bright and breezy apartment offers a relaxed coastal village lifestyle with affordable levies and a gorgeous common garden at the doorstep. • Quiet rear setting in Block C with only one flight of stairs • North-east aspect with sunlit interiors and leafy outlooks • 2 large double bedrooms with built-ins and wool carpet • Spacious living with polished floorboards, built-in cabinetry • East facing balcony with a garden outlook, ocean breezes • Streamlined Caesarstone kitchen and sunlit dining area • Bright contemporary bathroom, Italian glass mosaic tiles • Stone-topped vanity, bath/shower, hidden internal laundry • Undercover parking and a large secure storeroom on title • 300m to Bellagio and Charing Cross village cafes and delis • Walk down to the beach, 700m to Woolworths Metro
