Directly overlooking the beautiful expanses of Fawkner Park , this charming large deco style first floor apartment is a genuinely unique, two bedroom home in a dynamic inner-city position. With an exquisite street frontage, glorious garden setting and one of Melbourne's most attractive gardens as your direct view and backyard, this is a home like no other. With lovely parquet floors throughout, the home's kitchen is a modern designer domain that connects via a servery to the lounge / dining which frames the most divine views of the park, whilst large mirrored robes in one of the bedrooms is fabulously convenient. Also features an undercover parking space, security door, premium stainless steel kitchen appliances and stone benches . Central bathroom has been renovated and is perfect in every way , even a heated towel rack . Enviably positioned on the city fringe, bordering parkland and just around the corner from Chapel St, this diverse and cosmopolitan location is one of Melbourne's finest...it's all at your doorstep! Including secure Car Park and recently installed full building security system.
