Take up residence in this serene and secluded haven and enjoy an unbeatable coastal lifestyle in this architect-designed family residence discreetly nestled in a tightly held cul-de-sac. This generous and modern six-bedroom home is flooded with natural light showcasing a captivating open-plan layout that generously accommodates both family and guests. Upon entering through the expansive front stacker doors the home is immediately engaging and welcoming. The modern and spacious kitchen facilitates seamless indoor and outdoor entertaining, complete with a serving window and walk-in pantry. Additionally, an underground basement, equipped with soundproofing, can serve as a cellar, an ideal music room, or a children's play area. Boasting six bedrooms the master suite is impressively grand in size and is complimented with an exquisite ensuite and walk-in robe. Another bedroom offers picturesque views of the side garden, where an inviting spa and tranquil relaxation space await. There is a generously sized bathroom, a laundry area, and an additional living space upstairs, suitable for children or perhaps as a seventh bedroom. A dedicated media room provides versatility, with a large sliding glass door that can be closed for privacy and sound or kept open to expand living space. Throughout the home, numerous vistas connect allowing the surrounding natural beauty to be showcased throughout the home including gorgeous bush outlook and picturesque gardens. The front entertainment area is protected and private and feels like you are hidden away with an ideal BBQ area and space for the outdoor setting. On the property, there is a substantial two-car carport that easily accommodates a caravan or boat, along with a double garage towards the rear of the property featuring convenient drive-through access. This property is truly exceptional, and just a short drive from the local boat ramp and pristine beaches. Don't miss this outstanding opportunity, all set on a large 1541sqm block.
