The great Australian dream of a home on a quarter acre block is perfectly exemplified by this four bedroom three bathroom home on a 1035m² (approx.) allotment. Featuring an extra wide street frontage and two crossovers, vast front gardens with a towering Oak offer scenic welcome to this family home brimming in character through three eclectic living domains. Offering plenty of space for a growing, active family this home's wealth of living spaces, from a private front lounge with tapestry brick surrounds on an open fireplace, well-ordered kitchen featuring a full suite of appliances overseeing family living and dining, and an encaustic tiled and skylit foyer that connects to a fabulous poolroom, offers plenty of space for every stage of family living. A covered deck off family living offers alfresco entertaining and the gardens offer the vast spaces that active kids, green thumbs and pets will love. Well-proportioned bedrooms share two bathrooms and a shower room, one well-placed as an ensuite with a spa bath, there is a separate laundry, heating/cooling, alarm, ceiling fan and a secure gate to copious off-street parking. With an eclectic appeal that will be difficult to resist, this home offering options to further upscale and enhance invites forward looking families to dream big and live large being within walking distance to Keon Park Station, schools, Central Reservoir shopping, parks and direct access to Melbourne's CBD via the Western Ring Road.
