Upscale your expectations with family-wise accommodation, impeccable presentation, and the ultimate lifestyle location. Characterised by imposing presence and impressive interior space, this three bedroom, 2.5 bathroom streetfront home offers an expansive dual-zone design with an entertaining formal lounge fitted with media-cabinetry and expansive living-dining with an elite AEG appliance and stone benchtop kitchen. Expansively proportioned with a dedicated first-floor sleeping level, even the accommodation is scaled up with three king-size bedrooms; all with generous robes, each with room to fit a retreat or home-office area...and the master with a large private ensuite. Designed for family harmony with a sun-catching treetop-view balcony for the master-suite, the home features a family-wise main bathroom with a kid-friendly full-size bath and separate WC, a family-sized separate laundry, and great storage including a garage-storeroom. High on quality and big on extras, with rich authentic Australian hardwood floors and privacy-enhancing dual blinds, this outstanding home offers individual reverse-cycle climate control to virtually every room plus ducted heating, an alarm, and ducted vacuum. Even the outdoors are impressively sized with a generous double auto-garage plus parking in front, and wraparound rear gardens with a place to entertain, space to fit a trampoline, and room for pets to run free. There's even a 2000L tank to keep it all well-watered and healthy. Located for lifestyle where the Highett retail and rail precinct meets blue-chip residential locale, this substantial residence is big on lifestyle too; with the station and shops around the corner, Southland within one station, and the CBD within a quick direct commute.
