Located in a private street in Kianga is this hidden gem of a house with fabulous views out over Barunguba (Montague Island) and Kianga Point. This home has so much to offer with wooden floorboards throughout and high, raked ceilings opening up the beautiful space inside. The back deck makes for a fantastic entertaining area coming right off the living room. The large living area has amazing views out over the ocean. It has a bedroom off the side which has been used as a study to take advantage of the aspect. Going around the corner is the fully equipped kitchen, two more bedrooms, a walk in linen cupboard and a large bathroom with spa bath. Down the internal stairs you come to a large rumpus room/4th bedroom with kitchenette and access to the downstairs patio which has a newly renovated second bathroom. This home is low maintenance and in a great position. Price to sell.
