This charming retro brick veneer home is located in a highly sought-after and central area. Boasting four bedrooms, three of which have built-in robes. The generously sized lounge and north-facing sunroom provide ample space for relaxation and entertainment. Fittings and fixtures such as gas cooking, ducted evaporative cooling, ducted gas heating, and a gas hot water system offer comfort and convenience. Outside, the property features extensive shedding with power and concrete floors, a carport, and a well-established 876m² approx. allotment. Located in the heart of Wangaratta's first-class hospital and medical district and just a 2-minute walk to the railway station, this property is also conveniently situated close to central shopping, cafes, and the arts precinct. Plus easy access to schools, parks, sports grounds and the sport and aquatic centre is an added bonus. Priced at just $547,000 this property is a must-see.
