

14 Blakey St, Cobar, NSW, 2835

Sold House

Tuesday, 13 June 2023

14 Blakey St, Cobar, NSW, 2835

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 3

Type: House

Brinley Obray

Love at first sight!

This gorgeous 3 bedroom property is positioned on a generous 974m² block of land and having 92 years of history at your fingertips, this isn't just any ordinary home.

At first glance you are greeted with a stunning sitting room/sun room boasting brand new floating floorboards throughout the whole house including all bedrooms, that are all the rage right now. Through to the living room is a spacious area complete with modern carpet and a wood fire heater. Think modern and fresh stainless steel appliances in the kitchen, with beautiful benchtop, ample cupboard and storage space, new dishwasher, double stainless steel sink, stove, rangehood and oven, as well as an open plan dining room just off the kitchen. The primary bedroom is truly something special, offering a full length mirrored built-in-wardrobes while also having the potential to put in an island bench for accessories and class it as a walk-in-robe, floating floorboards with light and dark grey hues that are perfect to style with an oversized rug to add a personal touch and keep on trend, a unique archway separating the wardrobe from the rest of the bedroom and direct access to the main bathroom that comes complete with a spa bath and separate toilet. The laundry is located outside and has an additional toilet for you convenience.

Other notable features at the property include ducted evaporative air conditioning throughout, established gardens, 2x orange trees, enclosed patio to the rear of the home, long undercover carport equipped to fit 3 vehicles, separate enclosed back yard with rear lane access and solar panels.