Situated in a quiet street, in a lovely neighbourhood, this beautifully renovated three-bedroom home offers style and comfort with the convenience of all amenities in close proximity. This delightful home has been renovated retaining its lovely character features and cleverly combined modern features for an impressive result. Featuring 9ft ceilings, ornate cornices, hardwood floors and plantation shutters, the home has an open plan living area which is so inviting. Central to the living area is a large island bench – perfect for family and friends to gather around. The kitchen features stone benchtops, 900mm electric oven with gas cooktop and walk in pantry with fabulous barn door. Beautiful timber doors open onto the east facing sunroom which has internal stairs taking you downstairs. Air conditioning and ceiling fans have been fitted throughout the home allowing year round comfort and solar panels installed to offset electricity costs. Just a walk to the South Lismore Bowling Club and South Lismore Primary School, the property is just five minutes drive to the Lismore CBD. Downstairs you will find a rumpus room and a convenient shower and toilet, offering flexibility for your lifestyle needs. A covered entertainment area overlooks the fenced level yard with the added bonus of side lane access. A fantastic workshop, garage, trailer/boat accommodation and small storeroom are located downstairs also. So much room for the home handyman tinkerer. There are also two carports located at the front of the home. This home has been beautifully renovated and is a delight to inspect. Family friendly, fully fenced with extra room.
