This spectacularly presented brick home is now calling for new custodians. 14 Cross Street is located in the Stunning Highlands town of Glen Innes. Well known for its distinct four seasons. The elevated construction of the home enhances its street presence, with attractive brick fencing amplifying the quality of this home. In recent years, the internals have been renovated to reflect modern styling. The addition of plantation shutters on each of the windows further enhances that sense of quality. The home features:

- Three bedrooms all with immense built-ins, plus a self-contained unit.
- Large bathroom with standalone shower and separate water closet.
- Entertainers' kitchen with modern electric appliances throughout.
- LED lighting for energy efficiency.
- Fujitsu Reverse Cycle Air conditioning.

For when guests or family visit the home, there is a self-contained one bedroom, one bathroom unit with kitchenette and lounge on the lower level. If desired the unit could also serve as a home office. The rear balcony is a serene spot to soak up the morning sun, whilst gazing over the well-established gardens. The back garden provides a secluded area to utilize at your delight, with the benefit of secure fencing giving peace of mind for children and pets. For vehicle storage there is a 7m x 7m powered shed with an attached 7.5m x 7m carport, providing ample vehicle storage and a home workshop. For further vehicle storage the home also features an attached two car carport. Turnkey homes need to be seized in the moment.....and the moment is NOW.
