Experience the finest in coastal living with this beautifully crafted home by the renowned local builder, Beach House Constructions. This stunning residence offers a perfect blend of modern elegance, functional design, and prime location, making it an ideal retreat for families, retirees, and holidaymakers. Situated in a serene and sought-after neighborhood, this home is just a short stroll from the picturesque Seagrove Lake and nearby park. Enjoy the convenience of being close to Cowes Central, with its vibrant shops, cafes, and restaurants, while savoring the tranquility of this peaceful locale. Step inside to find a home that exudes style and sophistication. The property features two spacious living areas with raked ceilings that enhance the sense of space and light. The timber floors add warmth and charm, creating an inviting atmosphere for relaxation and entertaining. The heart of the home is the exquisite hostess kitchen, boasting sleek stone benchtops, premium appliances, and ample storage that opens into the large living space. The home offers three generously sized bedrooms, including a master suite with a luxurious ensuite bathroom for ultimate privacy and comfort. An additional study or third living area provides flexibility, perfect for a home office, library, or extra relaxation space. Bask in the sunshine on the north-facing deck, ideal for alfresco dining, entertaining, or simply unwinding in the fresh air. The native garden surrounding the property adds a touch of natural beauty and enhances the outdoor living experience. Your new home features a secure entry through a double garage, ensuring peace of mind and convenience. The garage also offers ample storage space, catering to all your practical needs.
