Get ready to fall in love with this spacious home located in Richmond Hill. If you're looking for a place to call home this is the perfect opportunity for you. Stepping inside this well planned and generous in size home, you are instantly greeted by the sheer space offered. An expansive, bright, and airy lounge flows down the extended hallway to bedrooms two and three, then through to the large dining area which includes glass sliding doors to either end that open out to the outdoors and covered patio. A well-appointed kitchen has everything on offer, a large pantry, plenty of bench space and storage options. Boasting three carpeted bedrooms, the sizeable master bedroom features air-conditioning, ensuite and great walk-in robe. Two further bedrooms featuring built-in robes are located at the opposite end of the home with direct access to the main bathroom, powder room and internal laundry. Double garage and a practical storage room offers two-way access for a practical space to store gardening tools and equipment. The 2,023sqm allotment bordered by established gardens and greenery, can be enjoyed for its simplicity or be transformed into your dream sanctuary with plenty of room to add a sizeable shed and pool.
