In a dress circle Armadale location, Federation splendour, exquisite, light filled interiors have benefitted from an inspired architect's renovation, culminating in an extremely inviting living spaces. Elaborate period details, high ceilings, fireplaces and huge windows feature throughout, delivering traditional character alongside generous proportions. A soaring cathedral ceiling and porthole window welcome plenty of natural light into the open plan living area, punctuated by a central marble island and beautifully appointed kitchen. A delightful box bay window accents the living zone, while three generous robed bedrooms include the luxurious ensuite main bedroom with comprehensive walk in robe. A meticulously landscaped setting includes an elegant rear timber deck and private courtyard, while the front garden incorporates off street parking. Additional attributes include hydronic heating, air conditioning, plantation shutters, laundry and powder room, in this impeccable location with excellent transport links within easy reach, including Toorak station, Beatty Avenue's boutiques and cafes, and High Street's sought after shopping destination.
