Located in the fast growing suburb of Marong and just 7 minutes drive to the Bendigo CBD, this newly built 4 bedroom home is the ideal spot for the modern family looking for the perfect blend of country living whilst still being connected to all the services you would find in a large city. Situated on a generous 700m² corner block, this extremely well built (large) 203m² home has been meticulously planned to offer the perfect blend of family 'togetherness' whilst providing large enough spaces for quiet time and privacy for all. The property features an open living area with an extra large kitchen featuring wrap around folding windows to an outdoor entertaining area perfect for guests or family get together. A large walk in pantry will make cooking a breeze with everything at your fingertips. The 3 bedrooms are all generously sized and all feature BIR whilst the spacious master bedroom comes with a finely finished ensuite and large walk in robes. A large 2 car lock up garage provides for off street parking and the house features central heating and cooling for all year comfort. This property is sure to impress.
