

14 Ferguson Street, Kelso, Tas 7270

livinghere

Sold House

Sunday, 5 November 2023

14 Ferguson Street, Kelso, Tas 7270

Bedrooms: 2

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Area: 531 m2

Type: House

Lochie Reid
0447632608

$340,000

Looking for that Fantastic location for a beach vacation or a comfortable place called home? Built in 1963 with added touch's of character and charm to the property, this recently fully renovated two bedroom home features open plan kitchen, dining and lounge room. The bathroom includes a shower and laundry facilities. A reverse cycle air conditioner is a great addition to keep the home comfortable throughout the year, and all new aluminum windows throughout the home. The deck is accessible from the living room, perfect for relaxation and spending time with family and friends . All this being within walking distance to the beach is a fantastic bonus, allowing for easy access to the beautiful coast line and all the activities it offers. Only 3 minutes drive to the Kelso boat ramp. Prominent features include: • Beautiful open plan kitchen, dining & lounge room • Bathroom with shower toilet and laundry • Reverse cycle air conditioner • Carport & access to the back yard • Two garden sheds • 531m2 flat fully fenced yard Kelso is a small bay on the Tamar River. Kelso is known as a fishing resort for flathead, whiting and mullet and also located near the Narawntapu National park. The locality is about 14 kilometers north of Beaconsfield approx 55 Kilometers to Launceston CBD and just 5 mins to Greens Beach.