Introducing a remarkable property listed in the charming village of Ellalong. This exceptional residence, nestled on just over 2 acres of land, offers a unique blend of privacy and convenience. Features include: A meticulously renovated 4-bedroom home, ensuring modern comfort and style. The home boasts year-round comfort with a split-system air conditioning system and a combustion fire. This ensures a welcoming environment regardless of the season. A dedicated teenagers' retreat, complete with its own facilities, offers a spacious and inviting haven for both guests and family members. An impressive 10-horse stable complex, complemented by a round yard and wash bay, catering to equestrian enthusiasts. Add to the presentation a generously sized covered farm/machinery area, providing ample space for equipment storage and organization. This rare offering also includes connection to the town water supply. Only a brief 10-minute drive to Cessnock and the renowned Hunter Vineyards, providing easy access to the region's world-class wineries. Just a 50-minute drive to the stunning Newcastle beaches, ideal for leisurely escapes and coastal adventures.
