Sitting on an allotment of 1000m² (approx) - basically a quarter of an acre - is this simply brilliant home. Rare is a great way to sum up the residence, situated in one of Meadow Heights' prominent pockets with an abundance of necessities, Shankland Boulevard Reserve just a short stroll away, shops and schools close by, easy access to public transport and Meadow Heights shopping centre within close proximity. The exceptional family home comprises four bedrooms and two bathrooms, opening into bright, open and recently renovated lounge room, alongside a spacious stunning kitchen. Generously sized with stone benchtops, and featuring 900mm stainless steel appliances. Added to this is another expansive living room which gives you extra space and versatility. The spacious master bedroom offers built-in robes and convenient ensuite. Three additional bedrooms (two with robes) are serviced by a central bathroom and handy laundry. Spilling out to the enormous backyard, picture yourself waking up on a fine sunny morning, all the greenery at your back door. A well landscaped garden, and so much room for the kids to play, plus there's a double lockup garage with internal and rear access. Property Features: Central heating and cooling throughout, alarm and intercom. Quiet and peaceful and simply an exceptional family residence. If you are looking to expand and upgrade with plenty of space, this home ticks all the boxes.
