First impressions are everything! Beautifully positioned in the prestigious location of Gulfview Heights, this meticulously maintained home, offers picture perfect manicured gardens and sets the tone for what you will find behind the front door! The entrance is welcoming with a warm neutral colour palette which continues throughout the home. To your right is the generous sized formal lounge room with adjacent formal dining room, both filled with natural light from the stunning picture windows. The spacious master suite situated at the front of the home is sure to impress, comprising a walk-in robe and substantial private ensuite. The stunning open plan living and dining area is a wonderful space to entertain even the largest of families. Offering a large kitchen featuring an abundance of quality cabinetry, breakfast bar and stainless steel appliances and walk-in pantry. Located privately down the hall are an additional 3 good size bedrooms. All are conveniently located to the fabulous 3-way family bathroom and laundry. This home is made for entertaining! As you move through the sliding doors and out to the expansive undercover pergola area, it really does act as a true extension to the family living space. Sit back and relax, take in the gully breeze while the kids or family pet play safely in the rear yard. The home also offers a double carport with rear access door, additional off-street parking, along with the convenience of a good-sized garden shed. Perfectly positioned close to highly desirable local public and private schools, parks and playgrounds, along with childcare and medical facilities. You truly do have everything you could possibly need right on your doorstep!
