A secluded street and low maintenance, well established gardens lead to a home that unveils one delight after another as every facet contributes to shaping a beautiful family living environment. Immaculate and elegant yet warm and welcoming, it discreetly sequesters the spacious bedrooms from a series of flawless, sunlit realms with the capacity to entertain guests, spend time together as a family or simply enjoy serene solitude. On a level 714.5sqm expanse it provides the backdrop for a stylish fusion of indoor outdoor living. Interiors under high ceilings framed by immense picture windows and floor to ceiling glass doors flow to a stone alfresco patio and broad lawns. This is flanked by a stunning sapphire blue heated pool and spa plus a superbly appointed cabana complete with a prestige gas barbeque and kitchen facilities. Above all this and encompassing an entire floor, the parents' capacious main suite includes a sundrenched private balcony, a bespoke dressing room and a stunning full designer ensuite. Immaculate throughout and embedded with designer finishes, this home requires nothing more than individual expressions of style. At the very heart of the Lower North Shore it's an outstanding address for a family to enjoy. Features
