Nestled in an idyllic location, this three-bedroom home brings together proportions, presentation and position in a package that offers immediate comfort, convenience and an exciting array of future possibilities! Brimming with charm and character thanks to original details including decorative cornice, picture rails, an eat-in kitchen fitted with banquette seating around a fitted table, the well-presented interior complements three bedrooms with two living areas and two bathrooms to deliver plenty of space for relaxed family living. Easy to live with extras include built-in robes to all bedrooms, ducted heating, split system unit a large laundry with fitted storage and an ironing station, and a tandem garage with workbench, secure behind double gates. Positioned in a quiet yet central locale, it is a relaxed stroll from schools, the bus, Coburg Hills Shopping Centre, local shops, cafes and eateries (including the award-winning Cono Gelato) and the Gilbert Road tram. Whether you choose to move in and relish the liveability, location and lifestyle before undertaking a rewarding modern-day makeover that takes full advantage of the position and proportions, or lease the property for immediate returns while you decide the future, this will not disappoint!
