Perfectly positioned within a deep private northeast allotment, this c1930s residence represents an exciting opportunity to restore to its former glory while adding contemporary comfort or alternatively to begin again with a new luxury home designed to your own taste and requirements (STCA). While the original floor plan and proportions have been maintained, the home has undoubtedly seen better days. The wide hall featuring high ceilings flows through to three spacious bedrooms, a bathroom with separate toilet, generous living room and large kitchen with casual dining area. A sunroom with laundry area and second toilet leads out to the deep private northeast garden. In a prized Kew precinct close to High St trams, Harp Village, Victoria Park and excellent public and private schools, this is the ideal location to build an exceptional family future. Land size: 550sqm approx.
