Welcome to 14 Jade Street in Mount Richon, this incredible tudor styled split level home is packed full of character and charm and is just waiting for you to move in! As you enter the home on the left you're greeted by a formal lounge with a fireplace to keep you warm all winter. Then on the right you have another living space which is currently being used as a study but could also be a fourth bedroom if that suits your family's needs. Moving downstairs there is a large games area that leads out onto a fantastic patio. The open plan kitchen and meals area also shares the fantastic hills views and has access to the patio. Moving upstairs you find a beautiful master bedroom that has feature beams and has its own balcony to enjoy your morning cup of coffee. All of the minor bedrooms are good sizes, and there is no work to be done. Moving outside you have a low maintenance yard, with a patio that's perfect for entertaining all year round and a sunken barbeque area.
