Offered for sale for the first time, this quaint holiday home holds a million family memories for the current owners, and now it is time for someone else to make their own. Stroll to the beach or along the local walking tracks, holiday with friends and family or start your property journey with this as your first home. However you do it, this property offers a lot to a new owner. Opening up to a spacious and bright family room, open dining room and a fully equipped kitchen. With 3 well-sized bedrooms, the master with built in robes, a flowing and practical floor plan offers a central family bathroom to complete the package. Embrace the fun retro charm, or take your hand to a renovation and add some modern flare, the choice is yours. Outside is a low maintenance and large backyard, as well as a good sized shed perfect for storing the family boat ready for summer activities.
