The superb renovations and an extension undertaken in this attractive brick family home have delivered a spacious contemporary living environment, creating an instant and lasting impression whilst its immaculate presentation will satisfy the most fastidious buyers. Set in lush landscaped gardens with soaring mature and ornamental trees lining the surrounding fences. The light and bright, crisp white interior is contrasted with polished timber floors and grey carpets. With an entrance hall leading to a formal sitting room and adjacent dining; plus three bedrooms or two plus a study, two fully-tiled family bathrooms and a concealed laundry. An informal dining area and a stylishly appointed kitchen featuring CaesarStone bench-tops, island bench, prestige Asko and Smeg stainless steel appliances and a bi-fold window servery; flows to a separate north-west facing family room and paved outdoor dining and entertaining area with electric awning; overlooking the deep rear garden – providing a tranquil oasis for alfresco living and relaxing with friends or family. Other features of this desirable home include Plantation shutters, ducted heating, R/C air conditioners (2 bedrooms), sensor lighting, solar system, watering system, garden shed, auto gates, former garage/storage and off-street parking. Enhancing its family credentials is its position in a quiet family-friendly area close to the Madeline or Liston Street Reserves, Hartwell Sports Ground, moments from Ashburton amenities including the Recreation Centre and Park, or the Anniversary Trail for family recreation. With popular shopping options, numerous schools and Rowen kindergarten all close by as well.
