Step into the perfect family sanctuary at 14 Klingner Street, South Mackay, where thoughtful design and comfort converge to create an ideal living space for your loved ones. This home boasts a spacious layout, emphasizing the importance of relaxation and togetherness. Discover unparalleled comfort in the four air-conditioned bedrooms, where restful nights and peaceful mornings await. Each room is not only climate-controlled for individual preferences but also comes adorned with ceiling fans, ensuring a breezy and soothing atmosphere throughout the year. The convenience of built-in robes adds a touch of practical elegance, providing ample storage for each family member's belongings. Embrace the luxury of a recently modernized bathroom, where sleek design meets functionality. The bathrooms are more than just utilitarian spaces; they are private retreats for unwinding after a long day, ensuring that even the smallest details contribute to the overall comfort of your family. The lower level features a massive pool room and bar, providing the ultimate space for recreation and relaxation. Another full bathroom and additional undercover entertaining areas complete the perfect setting for hosting friends and family. As much as the interiors offer comfort, the outdoor spaces are equally inviting. The spacious backyard and deck overlooking the pool provide a canvas for endless family gatherings and memorable celebrations. Whether it's a barbecue under the sun or a cozy evening by the pool, this home seamlessly integrates indoor and outdoor living for a holistic family experience. Beyond being a mere storage facility, the two-bay shed serves as an extension of the home's practicality. It's a space where functionality meets convenience, offering a retreat for hobbies and a sanctuary for items that may not have a place within the main living areas. If the backyard isn't big enough for your boxing day backyard cricket match, then why not stroll next door to the grassed reserve and playground. Additionally, sports enthusiasts will love the proximity to Souths League Club where you can take in a game of footy and catch up with friends for a drink and a meal. Just a short walk to the east and you'll arrive at BB Print Stadium for Cutters game, and the entertainment haven at Great Barrier Reef Arena providing endless entertainment opportunities. Your choices for recreation and leisure are truly boundless!
