If you are looking for a great priced property for horses this is the one.- Fenced into several paddocks with central laneway- 3 stables with power - A 5 bay shed with power and 2 enclosed lockable bays.- Chook shed - Large damThe 4 bedroom home would be suitable to live in whilst you build your new home or would suit a weekender and is open plan living with high ceiling in living area.It has a fairly modern timber kitchen and a freestanding log fireplace in the lounge area with split system air conditioning. The front veranda requires re timbering but overlooks the huge dam with plenty of wildlife but also is quite private off the road.This property is out of the flood map area of Lockyer waters.This will be a great property for someone that does not mind a bit of hard work and wants to purchase at a reasonable price.Vendors are keen to sell as circumstances have changed.Any reasonable offer will be considered.Please call Melanie and make an appointment for a viewing
