Auction 7th Dec - Motivated vendors

Nestled within a quiet enclave, this great family home enjoys a private and peaceful setting in one of Bangalow's most sought after locations. Tranquil, and overlooking spectacular gardens, this home is a haven amidst native birdsong and functional spaces. The block expands north down to a gorgeous neighbouring creek, said to host a resident platypus and set amidst a myriad of beautiful trees. Enjoy the lush tropical garden vistas from the living areas and master bedroom, bringing the beauty of nature right to your doorstep. Key Features :-

- Expansive Living : With three generous living areas, this home exudes versatility. Whether it's family time, grand gatherings or a quiet place to read a book, space is never a concern.
- Room for Everything : Built in robes with plenty of storage, with also an oversized double garage offering ample space for your vehicles, additional storage and work space.
- Unique Entryway : Begin your journey home by strolling over a charming fish pond entrance, setting the stage for relaxation as you leave the cares of the day behind.
- Outdoor Serenity : Step onto expansive decks that invite the outdoors in, creating the ideal setting for sun-soaked relaxation or al fresco dining overlooking the pool, all within your own garden oasis.
- Private setting : The home offers peace, privacy and a quiet setting back from the street.
- Nature : The captivating creek flowing behind the property enhances its charm and encourages native fauna.
- Tropical landscapes : Immerse yourself in the lush beauty of the established, tropical gardens, no further work required, just enjoy this peaceful setting.

Additional features:-

- Air Conditioning, wood fireplace, saltwater pool, timber floors, solar panels.
- Generous kitchen with modern appliances.
- Freshly renovated bathrooms
