Nestled discreetly in the prestigious Hurtle Square precinct in Adelaide, 14 Pope Street stands as a well-kept secret, waiting to be uncovered. As the morning sun casts its golden glow on the cedar-framed windows, it beckons prospective residents to explore the wonders within. Stepping through the front door, you're greeted with an inviting warmth, courtesy of the clever use of glass throughout. Direct sunlight streams into every corner, creating an atmosphere of serenity. The living areas are open plan and at the heart of the home is a meticulously designed kitchen, recently updated with modern appliances and sleek finishes. Whether you're a culinary enthusiast or simply enjoy a morning coffee by the window, this downstairs living space becomes a hub for daily life. Venturing upstairs, three generously sized bedrooms await, each with its unique charm. The master suite, adorned with large windows, a private balcony, and an abundance of built-in wardrobe space. The two additional bedrooms, equally bathed in natural light, provide flexible space for family, guests, or perhaps a home office. Stepping outside, a private courtyard garden unfolds—a tranquil oasis in the heart of the city. The scent of blooming flowers and the gentle rustle of leaves make it the perfect retreat for quiet afternoons or intimate gatherings. A large secure carport with remote roller door completes the picture, ensuring both convenience and security. The location of 14 Pope Street is a gift in itself. The allure of Hurtle Square, with its historical charm and community spirit, is right at your doorstep. Trendy dining establishments, cultural attractions, green parks, and public transport are all within reach, offering a lifestyle that seamlessly blends sophistication with everyday ease. As the day winds down, and the lights begin to glow softly, it becomes clear that this townhouse isn't just a property; it's a story waiting to unfold. A story of modern living, elegance, and the vibrant heartbeat of Adelaide, all woven together within the walls of this hidden gem on Pope Street. The next chapter? It could be yours to write.
