This well-presented family home is situated on the leafy Raintree Street in Rosebery, being a stones throw to everyday necessities such as Bakewell Shopping Centre, Palmerston CBD, medical centres, multiple childcare centres and schools. Raintree Street itself will appeal to many, offering up a peaceful outlook with well-presented properties surrounding and within an established neighbourhood, with a park positioned just a moments walk away. The property has 5 spacious bedrooms, including an excellent sized rear bedroom off the living area which may be utilised as an office. This home has been excellently maintained, including a recently completed kitchen refurbishment and has been freshly painted throughout. Beautifully light filled spaces with an easy flowing and functional layout. The master bedroom is to the front of the house with other bedrooms leading off the hallway which separates them from the kitchen and dining area. The second living area will be highly appealing for many, giving the kids their own space to play games and watch movies without having to disturb mum and dad. Further features of the property include:- Neat, clean and tiled throughout for easy up-keep!- Concealed built-ins in bedrooms- Large alfresco patio area with multiple ceiling fans- Double lock-up garage with rear access to patio- Two bathrooms, including ensuite to master - The shared bathroom has a separate toilet to the showering area and the hand basin sits outside both, being a huge plus particularly for young families who will also enjoy the bathtub- Convenient garden shed to help keep the double-lock garage clear- Fully fenced rear yard- Inside the main residence are two living areas with central kitchen with access to both the large family spaces- The refurbished kitchen has a double sink, electric oven and stove with extensive cupboard space- Both main living areas are air conditioned and tiled- The master bedroom has an ensuite and all other four bedrooms have fans and air conditioning- The main bathroom has a full length bath tub and separate shower- There is a separate toilet and a separate vanity area- Internal laundry with cabinets and sink- Good sized garden shed- Well maintained residence and grounds Great location at the right price, this offering is sure to pique buyers interest.
