What an absolute 'gem' and in such a magical location; this home is just a 'hop, skip and a jump' away from gorgeous Blacks Beach. Proudly sitting on an easy-care block at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac, this home was designed especially for its wonderful location by renowned local architect Geoff Carhart. Ultra-modern, with its mix of interesting materials, it has magnificent street appeal. Showing off its majestic skillion roofline, rendered exterior, contrasting timber poles and large front full-width deck; this home really stands out from the crowd. The outlook upstairs is simply sensational. Imposing tinted, floor to ceiling windows follow the angle of the roofline, enabling natural light to stream in, yet providing ultimate privacy during the day. Downstairs, the patio wraps snugly around two sides, and this is superimposed on the first level with a beautiful timber deck. Imagine relaxing outside in your comfy chair, drink in hand, listening to the waves gently breaking on the sandy shore. Breathe in the fresh air and savour the cool ocean breezes from the privacy of your own outdoor space. Simply the best! The interior is just as fantastic. Downstairs comprises double car accommodation, secure and with remote access. A wonderful multi-purpose family room, with direct access to the patio. Three great bedrooms, a family bathroom and laundry round off the lower level. Wander upstairs and you will be wowed! Cathedral ceilings and uninterrupted views through huge doors will simply delight. This modern kitchen will inspire the creation of gourmet delights. It is fitted beautifully with quality appliances, stone bench-tops and feature lighting. There is even a delegated spot for your coffee machine and a secret space for the wine and cocktail glasses. Friends and family will probably want to help 'rustle up' some great nibbly platters to share out on the deck, especially with views this great. Conversations will be effortless in this amazing space. Glancing out to the incredible deck, you 'feel the serenity.' This great outdoor space could be just for you, or it is well and truly adequate to entertain a crowd. Ample room for a table, chairs, BBQ, and lounge area too! What a superb spot for family get-togethers and a first-rate area for Christmas lunch. In the evening finish up with a soothing stroll along the beach. Living your very best life right here! Alternately, just sit back and relax on the lounge and stream your favourite show. Or when times are quiet, just sit, smile and take in the views while 'listening to nature's sounds.' Very cleverly positioned upstairs is the superb master suite. It is substantial in size and provides incredible storage, and of course a tranquil ensuite, with its very own soaking tub. Picture yourself lazing and unwinding amid the fragrant bubbles. Light the candles, prop your bath caddy across the tub, with your glass of wine and some soothing background music! Heaven in a tub! The yard is grassy and lush making it easy-care. There are some truly lovely trees in the yard. The uniquely attractive fence enables children and pets to roam freely and securely. With great access, there is also plenty of room in the rear yard to park a large caravan or boat. This magnificent home awaits! Smell the fresh air and savour the cool ocean breezes from the privacy of your own deck. Really...it is just like living in paradise! Call today and make it yours!
