PLEASE CLICK ON REQUEST INSPECTION AND REGISTER ONLINE FOR THE INSPECTION, ONCE A SCHEDULED INSPECTION TIME HAS BEEN MADE YOU WILL RECEIVE EMAIL NOTIFICATION OF THE TIME. Upon entering, you'll find yourself in the light-filled living spaces, adorned with charming timber floors. The open-plan kitchen and dining areas are perfect for family dinners, featuring ample bench and storage space, quality appliances, and a tiled backsplash for the avid foodie. The bedrooms are neatly arranged along the front of the property, with the master bedrooms offering ceiling fans and Foxtel points. The laundry offers external access for convenience, and there's also a rear bathroom with a separate toilet. Both homes boast expansive backyards, providing plenty of space for kids and pets to play. You can also unwind with friends, basking in the sunshine and enjoying outdoor dining under the stars on warm summer evenings. What we love about the property:

- 3 good size bedrooms
- Large lounge room
- Fully equipped kitchen with quality appliances
- Solid brick construction that's built to last
- Huge backyard

You can park your car in the driveway and enjoy gated access to the yard. Just across the road, you'll find Seacombe Street Reserve, perfect for playing ball with the kids or taking a post-work stroll with the dog. St. Mary Magdalene's School is a short walk away, along with Elizabeth Grove Junior Primary School and Elizabeth South Primary School. Nearby amenities include local shops, bus stops, and the Elizabeth South train station, making this a highly desirable opportunity not to be overlooked.
